Information

Standard Lessons & Bulk Lesson Packs

Lessons are charged at the advertised rate. If lessons are cancelled or refunded the previous taken lessons will be charged at the standard per lesson, hourly rate.

Gift Vouchers

Gift Vouchers are available for any special occasion and make the ideal gift. Vouchers will be posted to any required address and will include a voucher pack.

Intensive Driving Course's

- Absolute beginners will require the 30 hour course. The advertised price will include theory materials, free mock driving test, and practical driving test fee.
- Intermediate pupils will require the 20 hour course. The pupil is expected to have already received some practical driving tuition in the past and will have successfully passed their theory test. A free mock test is included and the practical driving test fee will be provided free of charge.
- All Training will take place over a one week period and does not guarantee a driving test pass.

Pass Plus

Pass-Plus driving lessons are available from many of the drive2us instructors. Completion of this course will involve an additional 6 hours of driver training and will include all weather driving, night driving and practical motorway driving. Upon completion of the course you will be awarded the Pass-Plus Certificate - the certificate will be required to obtain a discount from your insurer.

Refresher Course

If you are already a qualified driver and require some professional training to evaluate your driving skills, why not sign up for our refresher course? This course includes 6 hours of in car training with a professional instructor and will use a structured training plan to meet your needs and build your confidence on the roads.

Mock Test

Do you have a driving test coming up in the near future? We provide an independent mock test role play. We will evaluate your performance under test conditions and will provide you with a full report and debrief on your mock test performance. Everything will be just like the real thing!

Driving Instructor Training

Our instructor training program is available across the UK and will guarantee you a franchise position with us upon successful completion of the course. We provide a structured in car training program and where possible we use ex DSA examiners to provide our training. Call today for further information.

Cancellations

All cancellations must be done within 48 hours of your arranged lesson. Any cancellations within the 48 hour window will be charged a £20 cancellation fee. This fee is arranged as a deposit when you pay for your first lessons.
